GOD'S STRENGTH IS STRONGER

HOME GROUP STUDY & DEVOTIONAL

Before you begin, ask the Holy Spirit to teach you and guide your study.

1. Read Exodus 12:1-32. What insights into the Passover did you understand better after hearing the sermon?

2. Why did the Israelites have to perform a task in order to protect themselves from God's judgment of the final plague? Why didn't the Lord simply exempt the area where His people were living, as He had done in previous plagues?

3. Why did God make much about the Israelites asking the Egyptians for silver, gold and clothing? (See 3:21-22; 11:2-3; 12:35-36.)

Was this theft or extortion on the part of the Israelites, or was it justified? Why?

4. What does this passage show you about God's character and priorities?

5. What does getting rid of the yeast in order to celebrate the Passover symbolize for Christians? (See Lk 12:1; 1 Cor 5:8.) Is there "yeast" in your life? How can you work on getting rid of it this week?

6. What difference should it make in your actions this week that God has redeemed you from slavery?

7. Since Christ is the ultimate fulfillment of the Passover, what does it tell us about His work that ...

- the lamb had to be "without defect"? (See v. 5; compare 1 Pet 1:19.)
- the blood of the lamb, smeared on the door frame of a house, protected the occupants from God's deadly wrath? (See Ex 12:7,13; compare 1 Thess 1:10; Heb 9:22.)
- the Passover was also a feast of fellowship with, thanks to, and nourishment from God for the journey to Canaan; and the lamb was the main course of the feast? (See vv. 8-11; compare Jn 6:51-58.)

8. Over the next week, plan to meditate daily on the implications of Christ being your Passover Lamb. How does it affect your daily living? How can you express your gratitude to Him in concrete ways?

FOR FURTHER STUDY

Study in the passages below how the Passover connects with some key events later in Israel's history.

The first Passover and the departure from Egypt were Israel's real birthday as a nation. Before the Passover and exodus, the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were a people, yet they hardly knew what that meant. Only as God worked through Moses did the Israelites begin to comprehend something of who they really were. In their miraculous liberation, they were brought face to face with the grace of God as the foundation of their life. For this reason, the Passover and exodus are to Old Testament Israel what the cross of Christ is to the New Testament church. Both events created a radically new situation. Yet just as only those who respond in faith to Christ's death can truly enjoy its benefits, so only those Israelites who had true faith in the Lord were really His people. The Bible's message is consistent: God's power can revolutionize our circumstances, but only as we trust Him fully do we become His children.

J. SIDLOW BAXTER

The Lord God will claim the firstfruits of the Egyptian gods. He is going to show that there is a difference between the children of Israel and the Egyptians. The difference did not lie in the death angel which passed over both the lands of Egypt and Goshen. It did not lie in the fact that one race was Jew and one was Gentile. The difference lay in the blood of the lamb put upon the doorpost. Each home protected by the blood would not be touched by the death angel. This was the beginning of the oldest religious holiday of the Jews, the Passover Feast. The Passover is one of the most eloquent portraits of the Lord Jesus Christ found in the Old Testament. ... Thousands of lambs must have been slain that evening, but the sixth verse reads, "Israel shall kill it in the evening." These many lambs were speaking of another Lamb. God looked at all of these lambs as that one Lamb, the Lord Jesus Christ, who was the Passover offered for us. This feast was pointing to the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ into the world.

A WONDERFUL OFFER

Being a Christian isn't based on membership in a local church or keeping a set of rules. It involves a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and an understanding of who He is and what He has done to provide man with a way to experience God's love for us. Here's how to know Jesus Christ as your personal Savior:

1. Realize that you are sinful and separated from God. (Romans 3:23; Isaiah 53:6)
2. Recognize that the penalty for your sin is death—eternal separation from God and all that is good. (Romans 6:23; Hebrews 9:27)
3. Understand that Jesus Christ took the penalty for your sin by dying in your place and that He rose again. (Romans 5:8; 2 Corinthians 5:21)
4. Receive the free gift of salvation by trusting in Christ alone as your Savior. (Romans 4:4-5; Ephesians 2:8-9)

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life." (John 3:16 NASB) You can use this prayer to express your decision to God:

"Dear God, I know that I am a sinner. I believe that Jesus Christ died on the cross for me and rose from the dead. I trust in Him alone as the only way to get right with You. Thank You for the forgiveness of sins and the eternal life I now have. Amen."

KIDS MINISTRY SUMMER SESSION Love Jesus? You can make a difference! No special skills are needed — just a willing heart to help kids know and follow Him. Summer is a key time for our church family to step in and create a consistent, gospel-centered space for children. Whether you serve four Sundays or the whole summer, your impact will last far beyond the season! Step in and see what God can do through you! Sign up at ccbcfamily.org/session.

WOMEN IN THE WORD: SUMMER STUDY

This summer, come discover who God is and how His character meets us in everyday life. Through Scripture, we'll explore names of God like Peace, Shepherd and Banner — each one a reminder that He sees us, knows our needs and walks with us through every challenge. Whether you're facing uncertainty, seeking guidance or simply needing rest, God reveals Himself as enough. Join us for a summer study where truth takes root, hope is renewed and you're reminded you're never alone. Sign up at ccbcfamily.org/wiw.

A NEW PODCAST FOR PARENTS

Discipleship starts at home — and we want to walk with you in it. The Christ Chapel Parenting Podcast is designed to help parents live and lead like Jesus in everyday family life.
